Tap into CLI for Virtual Training, Coaching and Assessments

CLI's new online resources allow you to move ahead with developing your people!

1. TEAM BUILDING - Need a fun, engaging one-hour team-building experience? Try out our one-hour virtual experience where your teams can go through a number of engaging activities designed to build positive connections and give your team a boost for the challenges ahead.

2. TEAM DEVELOPMENT - Need to go a little deeper? Add on some skill development to our team-building program. We can provide content in a wide range of areas including DISC, emotional intelligence, conflict resolution, inclusive leadership, time or project management, and many more.

3. TEAM ESSENTIALS or DISC - Does your team need a more comprehensive review? Access our Team Essentials Assessment (www.team-assess.com) to identify your team's current performance level and start building an action plan to get to where you need to be. Build your team's collaboration - try our new DISC assessment at www.discprofessionalstyles.com.
