

THIS WEEK'S Huddle Topic

Your Team Belongs to Moorings Park!

Activity

PREPARATION TIPS

Read through the Huddle before facilitating.

Today we are going to talk about how important your team is to Moorings Park. Think of what your team does here, and what an important contribution your team makes to partners, residents, their families, and vendors here.

1. Say: "In the last Huddle, we talked about how your purpose and abilities helped build a strong team. In this Huddle, you are going to share what your team does to make Moorings Park so special. This activity is called 'Appreciation Throw-Down'!"
2. Say: "In a minute, but not yet, I will ask you to stand with your team members to share all the functions that this team performs here at Moorings Park. One of you must keep count. The idea is to share as many different functions or things as possible the team performs as possible within two minutes. Who will keep count?"
3. Say: "Any questions?"
4. Say: "Go!" (Pause for two minutes and tell the group when 30 seconds remains).
5. Ask: (After the activity), "How many functions or things did you count? How important is your team to everyone here at Moorings Park?"

Huddle Content

In this Huddle we are talking about the importance of teams here at Moorings Park. Here are three tips for ensuring that your team feels like they belong as important contributors here:

1. Praise team member accomplishments and tell others what they do well.
2. Remember that even the most mundane tasks are vitally important here at Moorings Park.
3. What would happen if your team did not perform its important functions.
What you do matters!
