THIS WEEK'S
Huddle Topic

Discover our Moorings Park Values

Activity

PREPARATION TIPS
Read the Huddle before facilitating.

1. Say: "Our Moorings Park Values inform us about what we believe in."
2. Say: "Our Values are 1. Respect for each person; 2. Ethical behavior; 3. Quality through: Integrity, accountability, and excellence; 4. Open to Innovation; 5. Commitment to non-profit to serve seniors and our greater community; and 6. Diversity as a strength."
3. We will be reviewing our values in the coming week and take a closer look at how you can live each value here at Moorings Park."
4. Ask: "Do you have any values you live by? Without values, many of us would struggle to make important decisions, or fall into unethical behavior. What is one value that you believe in or that is important to you?" (Offer one of your own if no one responds).
5. Say: "Here is a short story about how important values are here at Moorings Park. Listen carefully and try to identify the Moorings Park Value we are featuring. Here are our values again: 1. Respect for each person; 2. Ethical behavior; 3. Quality through: Integrity, accountability, and excellence; 4. Open to Innovation; 5. Commitment to non-profit to serve seniors and our greater community; and 6. Diversity as a strength. Ok, here is the story: You have a busy day today and notice that there is a problem that no one else notices. You break away and share the problem with your supervisor who asks you to resolve the problem. Which value(s) did you use?"

- ☑ Our Moorings Park Values are: 1. Respect for each person; 2. Ethical behavior; 3. Quality through: Integrity, accountability, and excellence; 4. Open to Innovation; 5. Commitment to non-profit to serve seniors and our greater community; and 6. Diversity as a strength.

Culture Connection

The Moorings Park Values guide us to act in positive, constructive ways. They call us to be at our best. They inform us about how to act and interact with others. They align with and support our Moorings Park Vision which is to be the premier provider in Southwest Florida of services, facilities, and health support to enable successful aging.
